Gainesville Inspectors Will Not Put Passengers Off Train.

A few days ago there appeared an article in The Sun to the effect that a citizen, traveling from Gainesville to Jacksonville, could not produce a health certificate and would have been put off the train had it not been for the fact that another citizen, personally known to the conductor and the officer, vouched for the fact that he had not been in any infected district within ten days.

The city board of health of Jacksonville, in violation of the law of the state board of health, it seems, established a quarantine of its own. Inspectors were employed to meet the train at Baldwin, and if a fellow could not produce a clean bill of health, he was trouble. As a result the traveling public, especially those on the Cedar Key-Jacksonville train, were subjected to considerable inconvenience and a serious protest was made.

Mr. J. Harrison Hodges of this city, county agent of the State board of health, wired Dr. Porter, president, to ascertain by what right, if any, the Jacksonville board of health could establish quarantine against all sections of the State without authority of the State board. Dr. Porter replied that the Jacksonville board had no right and were violating the laws of the State board in maintaining a quarantine.

The Times-Union of the 18th instant states that the quarantine has been withdrawn, owing to the objection of Gainesville, and in future passengers will not be required to produce certificates.

HAD TWO LIVING WIVES.

Longshoreman in New York a Typical Jekyle and Hyde.

New York, Sept. 19.—John Grady, longshoreman earning $12 a week was arrested yesterday charged with bigamy. It was found according to the complaint of his first wife, that he was maintaining a second establishment near his old home, while he pretended to be earning double wages by acting as a night watchman.

Grady and wife were married 11 years ago. There are five children—all girls. Recently his first wife says Grady began to stay out nights. A few nights ago, the longshoreman entertained a party of friends and the beer can made frequent trips. Grady's tongue began to wag and later he talked in his sleep.

Early next morning Mrs. Grady went on a sleuthing tour, which resulted in her finding the second household.

SOCIETY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Annual Reunion of the Veterans of This Army in Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The Society of the Army of the Cumberland met today in its annual reunion. There are several hundred men present, many of them prominent in the west, north and east. Although the attendance has been cut down by fear of possible danger of yellow fever, at 10 o'clock this morning the convention was called to order by Acting General James Barnett. The invocation was pronounced by Dr. J. H. Race, of Grant university and Mayor A. W. Campbell delivered an address of welcome.

This afternoon excursions will be taken to the battlefields of Missionary Ridge and Orchard Knob. At night the annual oration will be delivered by Colonel John D. McCook, of New York city. The music is furnished by the band of the Twelfth cavalry stationed at Fort Oglethorpe.

Woman Killed by Jilted Man.

Crown Point, Ind., Sept. 19.—Harry Homan, of Hammond, Ind., scion of a wealthy family, angered because his fiancée of five years had married Chas. Jeannette, of Steger, Ill., in the presence of many persons, fired four bullets into his former sweetheart's heart and then killed himself. Miss Ida Taylor had been betrothed to Homan for five years, but two weeks ago she was married to Jeannette. Vowing vengeance, Homan came to Crown Point Saturday and secured a room at the hotel, where the Jeannettes staid.

New York, Sept. 19.—Prominent residents of this city yesterday paid tribute to Captain Stephen J. Lang of St. Louis, who was a trusted lieutenant of Louis Kossuth during his efforts to achieve independence for his native land. Captain Lang, who is 66, is spending the summer at Avenue, L. I. He had decided to spend the winter in this city, but an attack of illness compelled him to give up this idea and he returned last night to St. Louis.
